(54) Title: SECURE DISTRIBUTING SERVICES NETWORK SYSTEM AND METHOD THEREOF

(57) Abstract: A persistent data control system and method of securely distributing data on a network includes the steps of providing an encoded file of a single file type having a plurality of file control fields, the file having at least one data type, and incorporating at least one encoded use right and/or access right into one of the control fields of the at least one data type. The persistent data control method is performed at an application level, and is capable of being embedded in an application which originates the at least one data type or called by an application. The persistent data control method further comprises the steps of decoding the plurality of file control fields including the file control fields for the encoded use right and/or access right, decoding the at least one data type in accordance with the access right, and rendering the decoded data type in accordance with the decoded use and access right.

* Special categories of cited documents:

- A document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance
- E earlier document but published on or after the international filing date
- L document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)
- O document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means
- P document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

- T later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention
- X document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone
- Y document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art.
- & document member of the same patent family
